

New Welsh Review, Multimedia Content Assistant f/t, temporary for 1 month (on campus at Aberystwyth University)

Are you a current Aberystwyth University undergraduate (3rd year), postgraduate or graduate in film and TV seeking to gain work experience in generating multimedia content for web publishing for a renowned literary magazine? We have a fantastic 4-week full-time work placement opportunity to help New Welsh Review direct, record and edit an agreed number of videos and audio interviews, features & creative pieces for their website.

Please note this opportunity is open to current Aberystwyth University 3rd year film and television studies students and to current Aberystwyth University postgraduates and graduates with the relevant degree or postgraduate background.

The post is for 115 hours over one month, mainly to be worked at NWR's office in Aberystwyth with flexibility to work from home during research periods. Payment is £6.50/hour.

Please also note this is a 4-week placement due to start 29th September 2015 and finish 27th October 2015 (provisional interview date 8th September 2015; film or audio work samples will be requested if invited to interview).

APPLICATIONS VIA CV AND COVERING LETTER TO GWEN DAVIES, editor@newwelshreview.com BY MIDNIGHT 24th August

NWR is Wales' leading literary journal. It is published 11 times a year across formats and is central to the Welsh literary scene in offering a vital outlet for the best new fiction, creative non-fiction and poetry, a forum for critical debate and a rigorous and engaged reviewing culture. NWR's mission is to be dynamic, curious, lively and outward looking, to commemorate the past but also to celebrate contemporary excellence and new directions <http://www.newwelshreview.com/>.

Essential Requirements

- Being a current (at the time of application) MA in Creative Media Practices, or in the third year of a BA in Film and Television Studies course or higher postgraduate in equivalent area of study at Aberystwyth University;
- Experience of planning, setting up and filming digital video features;
- Experience of editing video and audio content (please list software packages used);
- Experience of working in partnership with others on creative projects;
- Excellent attention to detail;

- Ability to take responsibility for own workload and to meet tight deadlines.

Desirable Requirements

- Be available, possibly at short notice, to film and record in the Aberystwyth area.
- Experience of setting up and filming video interviews, both in a studio environment and on location;
- Interest in literature;
- Experience of publishing to YouTube;
- Prior work experience (paid or in a volunteering capacity).

Expected Outcomes

Working closely with a Publishing Assistant (also being advertised as a work placement) and the magazine's Editor, Gwen Davies, you will use your specialist video and audio production skills to direct, record and edit an agreed number of videos and audio interviews, features & creative pieces for New Welsh Review's website.